Review: Series I is meant to be an explanation of various problems arising from the provincial regulations and methods of property revaluation and capital readjustment of privately operated enterprises. Gives commentaries and answers to questions arising from the interpretation thereto. Includes texts of provincial regulations governing privately operated enterprises as passed by the Government Administration Council on 29 December 1950, the implementation of Provisional Regulations as adopted by the Government Administration Council on 30 March 1950, as well as questions and answers pertaining to these two regulations.
Includes directives and regulations banning loan and exchange business by enterprises or individuals other than banks, and a directive on the revaluation and readjustment of privately owned property and capital, together with questions and answers on these problems.
